3 CAFÉS

Vienna is the true home of the Kaffeehaus and European café life was effectively invented here. The array of cafés with stunning selections of cakes, pastries and buns is mind boggling. Gorge you way around too many of them before retiring to your hotel to be sick.

FALKENSTEINER PALACE ★★★★★

92 Margaretenstrasse, Vienna 1050
The hotel is located south of the city centre 400m from the metro stop Pilgramsgasse and very close to tram and bus stops. The property was built in 1987 and renovated in 2005 so the fittings and décor are smart and modern. Facilities include a sauna.

SALZBURG

Salzburg straddles the border with Germany and is next on the tourist list after Vienna. It offers the country's best Baroque architecture, subalpine air and a world-renowned musical heritage provided by the city's most famous son: one W A Mozart. Rock me, Amadeus! The city has a compact centre, making the sight easily walkable and there is a wealth of elegant cafes, the most exalted of which are Tomaselli's and Bazar - if you can stand the snooty waiters!
